

---

1907-1908 Asheville City Directory listing of Nurses

1907-1908 Asheville City Directory listing of Nurses – 56 nurses total

Asheville Mission Hospital -10

Mary Laxton- Head

Lucy McClean

Edna Julian

Lola Hardin

Hattie Eller

Maggie Bryson

Myrtle Brevard

Roberta Allen

Margaret Patterson

Flora Newton

African American Nurses-4

Katherine Warner

Amanda Tucker

Jenny Burgess

Charlie Byers (male nurse)

Dr, Carroll's Sanitarium - 7

Annie Cordona

Louise Guffin

Stella Hardward

Bess Rankin

Sue Wilson

Daisy Mackey

Loritz Lawson – Male nurse

Clarence Barker Hospital -2

Florence Pitts

Floy Miller

Winyah Sanitarium -1

Helen Hawkes

Asheville School (Private) -1

Mary Thompson, Trained Nurse

Trained Nurses -4

Mary Thompson (see Asheville School)

Lorena Ray

Rosalind Marshall

Mary Garrity

Male Nurses -4

Silas Smith – Highland Hall

Robert Lynn – Highland Hall

Loritz Lawson – Dr. Carroll's Sanitarium

Charlie Byers (African American)

White female Nurses without affiliation in the City Directory - 25

Mittie Sullivan

Mattie Stines

Nellie Staples

Gonano Starnes

Mary Spilardes

Belle Reese

Delia Pritchard

Anna Patton

Olof Olopson

Mary Miller

Nan Merritt

Etta Malone

Christine Key

Irene Kestler

Nellie Hackney

Mamie Grant

Miss M.A. Foster

Hester Evans

Lula Dobson

Georgia Adams

Julia Colyer

Amy Colyer

Ruth Burgess

Laura Belle

Mary Batterham**

** Mary Rose Batterham was extremely active in the NC State Nurse Association and for years was thought to be the first Registered Nurse in the US. It is amazing that she didn't put "Registered Nurse" after her name.