

---

Nurses who worked at the "old" watauga County Hospital (opened in 1937 and is now known as Founders Hall on the Appalachian State University campus) include:

Edna Heinzerling (First Director of Nursing), Helen Rominger, Gunta Lukibitz (? spelling) Owsley, Dare Harrison, Sarah Prevatte (Assoc Director of Nursing), Rose Bolick (ER), Bonnie Beach (ER, maybe OR), Cleo Rhyne (OR Supervisor), Sue Simmons (Director of Nursing in the 1950s), Betty Shook (first CRNA), Kate tester (LPN), Jean Cable, Kathryn Stapleton

Nurses who worked in the "New" (1967) hospital included (were there in the years of 1969-1973):

Frances Young, Bessie Reynolds, Linda Elledge, Pat Light, Lennis Moody, Nancy Haas, Faith Houk Furman

Nurses who worked in the ASU infirmary from 1950s=1970s included: Mary Stevenson Shook, Nina Martin, Issa Saylor, Lucille Hovis.

Nurses who worked at the Watauga County Health Department included: Jo Harrison, Orbie Ward, Mary Nell Marsh (Director of Nurses), Irene Clawson, Lois Harrell.